A Pleased Savings Bank Depositor. There is no county in Vermont, indeed, hardly a town in the state, or a state in the Union, that does not make deposits in the Hyde Park Savings Bank.

The unprecedented growth of that institution is the result of two things: first, confidence; second, satisfaction with its management.

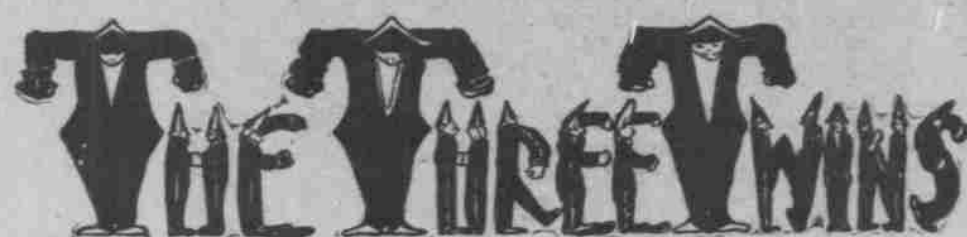

Everybody is well treated at that bank and everybody is satisfied.

Ask your neighbor who deposits there and see if he does not vouch for the truthfulness of this statement.

Reunion of Six Sisters at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Gale to Celebrate Two Birthdays

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Gale on Sept. 7, was a very pleasant and enjoyable affair when the five sisters of Mrs. Gale were welcomed to her home, Mrs. C. A. Harris of Barnet, Mrs. Harriet Wells of East St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Sylvanus Hammingway of Waterville, Mrs. Lizzie Flint of Malden, Mass., and Miss Abbie Farrow of Kirby. This special gathering was in honor of Mrs. Wells' birthday, and the birthday of Mrs. Gale which came two days previous. It also marked the first reunion of the six sisters since leaving their parental home on the farm of their father and mother, Independence and Martha Kellogg Farrow. For the last 25 years of his life he was an invalid and unable to work on the land, and as there were no boys in the family, the girls did the greater part of the work on the farm, while the mother spun and wove cloth for their clothes. After talking over their many childhood joys and hardships, 13 sat down to a feast of good things, and while there a penny collection was taken for Mrs. Wells, a penny for each year past, and one to grow on, while the others received substantial presents.

On Saturday afternoon the College club was delightfully entertained by Miss Martha J. Hall. There was a large attendance at this meeting including college students who are at home, some teachers who have just received substantial presents.

The program was short and informal consisting of a reading from Seamus McManus by Mrs. Arthur F. Jones and the singing of two Irish songs by Miss Margaret Merrill. Refreshments of sherbet and cake were served. The committee appointed to arrange for the next meeting is Mrs. M. G. Benedict, Miss Jean Hough and Miss Beulah Johnson.

Mrs. Philip H. Thompson and Miss Ethel Goss entertained the Bridge Club on Saturday afternoon and at the same time 20 girls took advantage of the opportunity to give Miss Hortense Peters a shower of aluminum kitchen utensils. Before returning home Miss Mildred Stanley was presented with a shower of kitchen utensils which were brought to her tied to a maple branch.

Misses Josephine, Elizabeth and Irene Peck gave a "Bacon Bat" Wednesday night on the Knob, a dozen young ladies. Before returning home Miss Mildred Stanley was presented with a shower of kitchen utensils which were brought to her tied to a maple branch.

Little Frederick Rodloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Rodloff, of Webster street, celebrated his 7th birthday Saturday by entertaining seven of his friends at his home in the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served and Frederick received many pretty gifts.

Dr. and Mrs. William G. Ricker entertained the Yale graduates in town and their wives at dinner Friday evening in honor of Howard R. Bennett of the Academy faculty.

Miss Maude E. Follensby and Miss Maude Brown entertained five tables at bridge on Wednesday afternoon on the piazza of the Follensby home.

Mrs. Luther S. Jewett entertained four tables at bridge on Wednesday afternoon.

The Bridge Club was entertained by Miss Katherine Vail at Speedwell Farms, Monday afternoon.

Miss Winifred M. Drew entertained the "Gym" girls at her home Friday night. A delicious supper was served and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Wilcomb-Fraser

One of the prettiest social events of the season occurred Thursday evening at the home of Fred Fraser of West Burke, when his daughter, Miss Mildred E. Fraser, was united in marriage with Archibald D. Wilcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Wilcomb of this place. The ceremony was performed at eight thirty o'clock, Rev. Fred Williams of Hartley, P. Q., officiating. Standing beneath a massive arch of evergreen in the parlor, the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Elsie Sargent, he was approached by the bride party. The party was led by little Miss Inez and Master Parker Crandall as ring bearers. Alvi Calderwood as best man then came from the back parlor accompanied by the groom. The bride entered from the reception room on the arm of her father, who gave her away, and she was attended by Miss Grace Barney as bridesmaid. Donald McGregor and Ernest Barbieri acted as ushers. The impressive double ring service was used. The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin trimmed with princess lace. She wore a veil and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid was daintily dressed in lavender crepe de chene trimmed with satin and lace. The groom's mother was attired in black satin. The color scheme of the parlor was green and white while that of the back parlor was lavender and green, being decorated with asters and asparagus. The dining room was decorated with an abundance of sweet peas. The marriage ceremony was immediately followed by a reception at which refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served. The wedding was largely attended, including a number from here and other places. The guest book was in care of Mrs. H. C. Colby of West Burke. The bride presented her bridesmaid with a beautiful gold pendant and chain and the groom's gift to the best man was a scarf pin. The newly wedded pair were the recipients of many beautiful and expensive gifts most notable of which was the dining room set given by the parents of bride and groom. Other gifts consisted chiefly of cut glass, silver, china and rugs. The bride is the only child of Fred Fraser of West Burke. Mr. Fraser is a well-known traveling man. Since completing her education in St. Johnsbury Academy the bride has been a successful teacher for the past four years in the public schools of Newark, Sutton and St. Johnsbury. Latterly her attention has been devoted to teaching music. The groom graduated from the commercial department of St. Johnsbury Academy in the class of 1906. Since graduation, he has been employed for five years by the Cary Maple Sugar Co., one year by the St. Johnsbury Grocery Co., and now has a very good position as traveling salesman for the Cross Abbot Co. of White River Junction. He is a member of the local council of United Commercial Travelers and also is a member of the Crescent Club. Both bride and groom have a host of friends who extend congratulations and wish them all that life at its best affords. After a three weeks' wedding trip across Lake Champlain and Lake George, thence down the Hudson to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcomb will sojourn for a few days in Boston and then return to take up residence in St. Johnsbury.

Dalwick-Hallett

On Saturday, August 31st, a very quiet wedding ceremony occurred at the Methodist parsonage, Rockville, Md., when Emma Sophia Hallett, daughter of Mrs. Viola E. Hallett of St. Johnsbury, was united in marriage to George Franklin Dalwick, Jr., by the Rev. F. M. Richardson.

Mr. Dalwick is the oldest son of George W. Dalwick of Brunswick, Md. After a short trip to the groom's home in Maryland, the couple will reside for the present in Washington, D. C.
